

MARCO Stakeholder Liaison Committee Meeting

Date: November 20, 2015
Time: 9:00 am – 12:30 pm
Location: Loews Annapolis Hotel
126 West Street
Annapolis, MD
Meeting Room: Powerhouse, Thomas Point Room, First Floor
Webinar link: <https://merid.adobeconnect.com/slcmeeting/>

Meeting Objectives:

- Share reflections about regional ocean planning progress and discuss intersections and shared interests across sectors.
- Provide ideas for how MARCO, working with the Stakeholder Liaison Committee (SLC), can stimulate stakeholder interest in review of draft components and the draft OAP in 2016.

In addition to SLC members, invited guests and representatives of federal agencies may participate in the meeting. Members of the public joining remotely will be encouraged to submit any questions or comments via chat.

Agenda

- 9:00 am Welcome, introductions, and agenda review
- Laura McKay, MARCO Management Board Chair, Member of the MidA RPB for Virginia, Virginia Coastal Zone Management Program
 - Kate Morrison, MARCO Executive Director
 - Meghan Massaua, Meridian Institute
- 9:20 am Update since September RPB meeting
Gwynne Schultz, State MidA RPB Co-Lead, Member of MARCO Management Board, Maryland Department of Natural Resources
- 9:30 am SLC reflections on RPB progress
An opportunity for informal Q&A and discussion of data synthesis and assessment products and draft IJC Actions. MARCO Management Board members will also offer verbal updates on progress to-date.

11:00 am Identifying opportunities for stakeholder engagement going forward

Kate Morrison, MARCO Executive Director

Discussion questions:

- What types of engagement would be helpful to your sector (by sector, cross-sectoral, during OAP review)?
- In what specific ways could you help as liaisons with your sectors?

12:00 pm Public Comment

12:15 pm Closing Summary

12:30 pm Adjourn